

Sentences

Six Different Ways to start a sentence

1. The subject
The man walked down the street.
2. A participle (-ing or -ed word)
Walking up the street, he tripped.
Worried about tripping, he bumped into his wife.
3. A conjunction
As he walked, he whistled.
4. An adverb
Joyfully he skipped up the street.
5. An adjective
Angry at the world, he stalked off.
6. A phrase
At the top of the road, he paused.

Remember:

Savage Porcupines Can Always Annoy People

