

Speech Marks Practice “ ”

Write the following sentences out in the space underneath, with speech punctuation. The first one has been done for you.

Don't forget

- Start a new line when someone else speaks.
- Put other punctuation like ! . ? inside the speech marks.

1. Why do we have to do homework asked the pupil miserably.
"Why do we have to do homework?" asked the pupil miserably.
2. Susan shouted watch out!
3. What's on TV I said.
4. What's the time asked Mark. It's 9 o'clock replied Tom.
5. I watched carefully as the teacher did the example. Now have a go at doing it yourself she said. I still wasn't sure so I asked her to go through it again.
6. What do you want to do when you grow up said John. I don't know replied Dan I might be a pilot.
7. What are your hobbies asked Jill. Well said Jack I like collecting model cars. How dull laughed Jill. Jack sulked and wouldn't speak to Jill for the rest of the day.

For help and information on speech marks, click on the following link:

www.bbc.co.uk/learningzone/clips/speech-marks/9122.html